Intercessor: Leslie Fletcher

This morning's Eucharistic Prayer: E

Prayer in the silence after communion

Almighty God, in whose service lies perfect freedom: teach us to obey you with loving hearts and steadfast wills; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Collect for the St Chad's Sunday

Almighty God, from the first fruits of the English nation who turned to Christ, you called your servant Chad to be an evangelist and bishop of his own people: give us grace so to follow his peaceable nature, humble spirit and prayerful life, that we may truly commend to others the faith which we ourselves profess; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

Post Communion for St Chad's Sunday

Holy Father, who gathered us here around the table of your Son to share this meal with the whole household of God: in that new world where you reveal the fullness of your peace, gather people of every race and language to share with Chad and all your saints in the eternal banquet of Jesus Christ our Lord.

Next Sunday, Mothering Sunday Exodus 2:1-10 (Reader: Barbara Purvis); Psalm 107; Colossians 3:12:-17 (Reader: Laverne Ward); John 19:25b-27 (Gospeller: Colin Powell), Intercessor: Jenny Black

Tea and coffee are served in the Hall after the morning service
Afterwards Barbara Purvis's 80th birthday lunch to which all are invited

Thanks

“I just wanted to say a belated thank you for your help with organising last Wednesday’s volunteering day! We were really pleased with how many student volunteers came along. The welcome they received was such a warm one, as always at St Chad’s, and so we’re hoping that we’ll see those students doing more volunteering in the future.” From Debbie Houghton, University of Manchester

More thanks
