AREA CLASSIFICATION

2011 Output Area Classification England & Wales (Preliminary)

- Based on 62 variables from the 2011 Census
- Clustered to form a 3 tier classification
 - 8 Supergroups
 - 24 Groups
 - 67 Subgroups
- Use to compare areas

Burnage & Ladybarn by OAC Supergroup

1. Rural Residents
- 2. Cosmopolitans
3. Ethnic Mix
4. Blue Collar
Neighbourhoods
- 5. Multicultural
Metropolitans
6. Suburbanites
7. Hard-pressed
Households
8. Urbanites

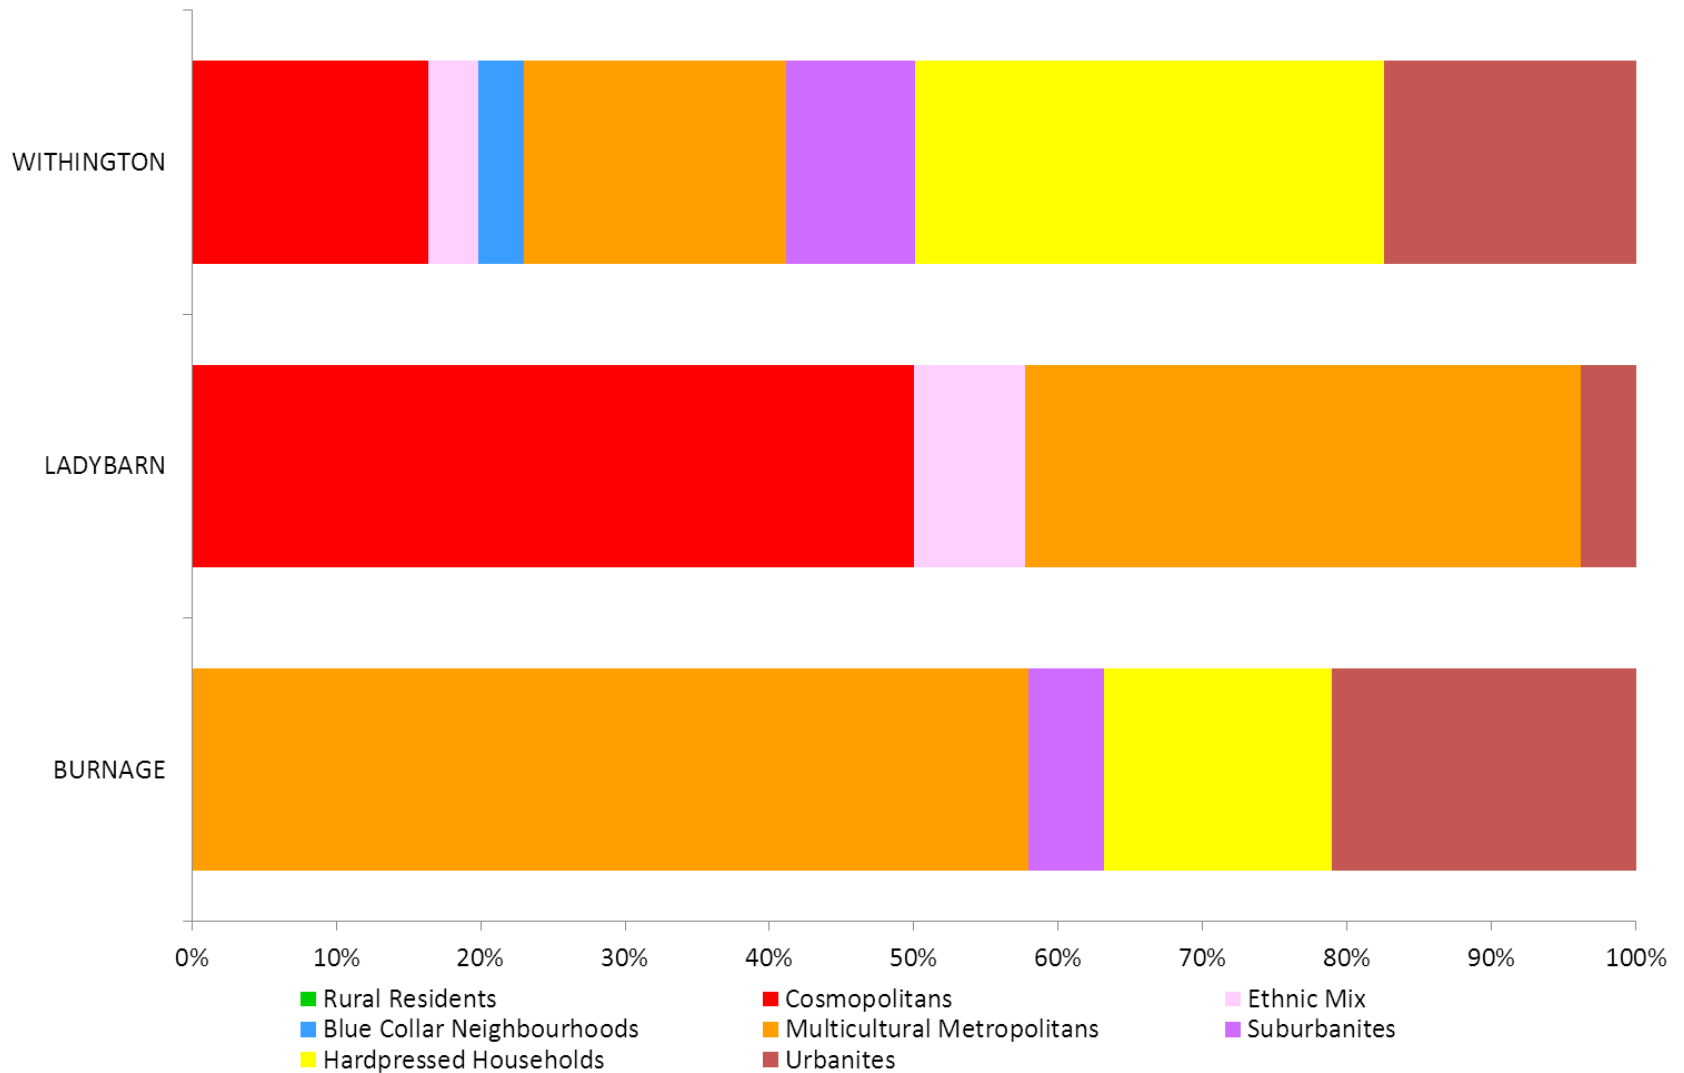

Cosmopolitans

- The majority of the population in this group live in densely populated urban areas.
- Likely to live in flats that are privately rented with a below average number of rooms. There is more chance they will have access to a second address elsewhere (non-term time addresses for students).
- High ethnic integration, with an above average number of residents from EU accession countries coinciding with a below average number of UK and Irish residents.
- Likely to have higher-level qualifications than the national average and be in above average health.
- Primarily young adults that are likely to be single and not have children. They are likely to be either full-time students living away from home or working in service industries.
- Likely to use public transport, walk or cycle to get to work.

Multicultural Metropolitans

- ▮ Concentrated in larger urban conurbations in the transitional areas between urban centres and suburbia.
- ▮ Likely to live in terraced housing that is rented – both private and social.
- ▮ High ethnic mix, but a below average number of UK and Irish residents.
- ▮ Likely to be below retirement age with an above average number of families with pre-school or school-age children.
- ▮ The level of qualifications is just under the national average with the rates of unemployment being slightly above the national average.
- ▮ Residents who are employed are more likely to work in the transport, storage or the hospitality sectors.
- ▮ Public transport is the most likely method for individuals to get to and from work.
